ALICE HUME. Big 10-inch flowers in a soft buff shade.

BLUE RIVER. Silvery-lavender flowers are borne in profusion on a low-growing bushy plant.

BOBBY DEAN. Considered one of the finest apricot dahlias and very popular everywhere.

CHAS. L. MASTICK. Large compact blooms are bronze to orange. Prized for its form and good-keeping quality.

CACTUS DAHLIAS

75c each, 3 for $2.00

ANIMATO. A delicate shell pink with a lighter reverse. Low-growing but very good stems for cutting.

DOREEN CRANE. Medium peach shading to rich apricot at the center. Blooms early, cuts nicely.

JERSEY DAINTY. A lacy and dainty pure white, about eight inches across. Medium height.

MISS GLORY. Lush yellow flowers are borne on long stems on medium to tall plants.

SATAN. Deep scarlet and very good. Blooms are fairly large, usually 10 inches.

MINIATURE DAHLIAS

50c each, 6 for $2.50

FAIRY. An old-timer but still one of the best lavender pinks.

I. K. E. Vigorous plants produce excellent crops of ruby red flowers.

QUEEN OF THE YELLOWS. A vivid yellow that stands out in the garden.

WHITE FAWN. Many snow-white blooms against deep green foliage.
